

Junior Accountant and Controller (m/f)

(apply now via WhatsApp & Co)

Do you want to change the future of communication, today?
Have you already sent a WhatsApp message today?

If you answered “yes” to both questions – then you’re applying for the right job!

MessengerPeople is an expert team for professional messenger communication. We live disruption: each day we change the way the world communicates. With the MessengerPeople solution, companies can use the top messaging apps worldwide, such as WhatsApp, Facebook Messenger, and Apple Business Chat, for successful, professional customer communication.

Work smart and hard – but not long. The job revolves around you, not you around the job. Flexible working hours and a focus on the customer’s needs don’t have to be mutually exclusive.

Is focus one of your strengths? Do you know the secret to perfect customer service – and you know that there’s nothing you hate more than waiting on hold with elevator music?

Apply today as part of our G&A Team – you can even apply via WhatsApp & Co. It’s fast, safe, and personal.
